

Review the paper submitted for the
“The Polish Review of International Relations”

Reviewer's name:

.....

Title of the paper:

.....

.....

.....

.....

1. Evaluation of the issues

Points awarded (0 to 8):	Does the paper concern an important issue and why? Has it been formulated methodologically correctly? Is it a new issue in the Polish scientific literature?
--------------------------	--

Remarks and comments:

2. Evaluation of the research methods

Points awarded (0 to 8):	Is the structure of the paper correct? Is the terminology correct? Has the author chosen the proper method to present the issue? Has the author duly taken advantage of literature? Can the reasoning be in principle accepted and have the final conclusions been based properly duly substantiated?
--------------------------	---

Remarks and comments:

3. Evaluation of the paper form the substantive perspective

Points awarded (0 to 8):	Is the content of the paper consistent with its title? Is the substantive level of the paper high? Does it bring anything new into scientific knowledge in question?
--------------------------	--

Remarks and comments:

4. Evaluation of the paper in terms of formal requirements
Points awarded (0 to 8):	Has the paper been written correctly from a linguistic point of view? Is the paper correct from the formal perspective (References to literature, source descriptions, tables, drawings)?
Remarks and comments:
5. The suggested changes and amendments (Remarks and comments from this part of the review will be forwarded to the author of the paper)

Recommendation from the reviewer: (Please put a cross in the right place)

- Publish
- Publish after minor revisions
- Publish after major revisions
- Reject

.....

Date
Signature