9. Conclusion

The SEeB editorial team expresses gratitude to the members of the Scientific Council, authors, reviewers, and readers for their constant support, kindness, and valuable suggestions. Thanks to your assistance, our journal is developing dynamically. We are particularly pleased with factors such as the internationalization of authors and reviewers and the constantly growing citation. Hopefully, thanks to the persistent work of the editorial team and the support of our journal's friends, we will be able to maintain these positive trends.
